

---

56 Conversations

[page 134]

Person B

Use as many of these phrases as you can in your conversations with A.

1 Persuasion

At the travel agent's
A four-hour delay
Julia's friend
At the top of the mountain

2 Argument

Some of the money
The newsagent's
My mother's friend
A four-week period (or any other length of time)

3 Co-operation

The caretaker's broom
John's friend (or any other name)
A tool kit
A cup of tea

154 | Activity notes 54–56

---

41 Conversations

[page 134]

Person A

Use as many of these phrases as you can in your conversations with B.

1 Persuasion

Some of Britain's most beautiful scenery (or any other country or area)
Last night's news
The front of the hotel
A glass of wine (or any other drink)

2 Argument

At least half of the money (or any other amount)
Today's expenses
A three-week wait (or any other length of time)
My telephone bill

3 Co-operation

The side of the building
Next week's lesson
A pane of glass
With our teacher's help